

NSC BRIEFING

~~SECRET~~

THE DETERIORATING SITUATION IN SYRIA

I. Government's Ineffectiveness:

- A. Weak coalition, caretaker cabinet;
unable set election date.
- B. Major political parties, though still in cabinet, pulling apart.

II. Possibility of a Coup as Result of Governmental Weakness:

A. Threat of leftist-military coup:

- 1. Comes from radical socialist Akram Hawrani and military partisans;
allegedly 300-400 army officers out
of estimated 2000.

B. Threat of straight military coup.

- 1. Because of army dissatisfaction with civilian control.

DOCUMENT NO. _____
NO CHANGE IN CLASS. ☐
DECLASSIFIED ☐
CLASS. CHANGED TO: TS S C
NEW REVIEW DATE: _____
AUTH: HR 70-2
DATE: _____ REVIEWER: 3720

~~SECRET~~

25X1C

~~SECRET~~

2. Possible rebels: popular, influential assistant chief of staff Malki;

[REDACTED] Captain Hamdun,
armored brigade commander Amin Abu Assaf.

25X6

III. Outlook:

- A. Immediate successful coup possible but not probable.
- B. More likely, the situation will continue to deteriorate, increasing probability of a coup.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~SECRET~~